Getting There? Participants will travel from home and meet at pre-determined location i.e. Toronto ON at Pearson International Airport and then travel to Regina Saskatchewan as a group.

Chaperones? The participating students will be accompanied by a parent or chaperone from their community to and from a local departure point.

Accommodations? University of Regina, Regina SK and University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SK

Costs? All costs for participants, including travel, meals and accommodation will be covered by INAC. Participants are allowed to bring a maximum of $250.00 in personal spending money.

Where possible, a chaperone or other camp representatives will meet and travel with the students from the local departure point ie. Toronto, ON.

In the event that scheduling requires a participant to fly unaccompanied, the airline will be made aware that it is a juvenile travelling unaccompanied, so that supervision will be provided in the airport and while boarding and leaving the aircraft.

Chaperones and/or camp staff will meet the students upon arrival in Toronto, ON depending on where students are coming from. The chaperones will accompany the student to the camp and will be with them at all times.

When returning home, if not travelling with them, the chaperones will remain with the students at the airport until they are placed in the care of the airline for boarding.

The name of the family member/chaperone picking up the student at the local departure point must be provided in advance and each person will be required to provide photo identification in order for a child to be released to them.
