

Mississaugas of the New Credit First Nation
CNE Speaker Agenda

Everyone is welcome to visit our booth and listen to our speakers. No registration is required for speaker session(s). We are located in the Arts, Crafts, and Hobbies building.

Our primary objective is to engage interactive learning of Ojibwe/Anishnaabe Teachings, History, and Culture throughout the 18 days. We have five stations that offer information on cultural games and wampum, a community profile of Mississaugas of the New Credit First Nation reserve, Treaties and Historic purchases, Veterans' collection, and the War of 1812 Exhibit. A daily speaker schedule will be posted each morning at the booth and on our social media page at Facebook.com/MNCFN. We would like to share a poem with you.

Our Sacred Trust, written by Chief Stacey LaForme, is

*We are the keepers of this land
She shelters and sustains us
Long after the flesh fails the spirit
We will care for this land
Our drums will be heard upon the wind
Our voices in the rustle of the leaves
My people have a Sacred Trust with the land
A trust that death cannot sever
We were here when you first set foot upon this land
And here we will remain
Long after the last ship has disturbed our soil*
