

The MISSISSAUGAS OF THE CREDIT FIRST NATION
is accepting applications for the full-time, permanent position of Health Services Nurse Practitioner/Acting Supervisor
Closing Date: March 18, 2025, at 12:00pm

Job Summary:

Is a member of the Community Health and the Home and Community Care Team reporting to the Director of Health Services. The Primary Care Nurse Practitioner will provide culturally sensitive primary care services to MCFN community members across the lifespan and their families, a holistic approach through physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual wellness to chronic disease management, health promotion, disease prevention, and of life support, treatment of disease and injury, and rehabilitation. Working in collaboration and partnership with local Ontario health teams and health service providers and within the MCFN Social and Health teams.

Education & Experience

- Must have a current registration with the College of Nurses of Ontario as a Nurse Practitioner in good standing
- Must have a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a Master's in Nursing degree with Extended Class Certificate (Nurse Practitioner) from an accredited university
- Must have a minimum of five plus years of diverse fulltime RN experience. This experience should encompass working with individuals across the lifespan. Experience working within a First Nations community is an asset

Knowledge

- Knowledge of relevant legislation, regulations, and guidelines applicable to programs delivered, e.g., Standards of Practice, College of Nurses of Ontario
- Knowledge of various intervention strategies and evidence-based treatment modalities
- Knowledge of provincial health legislation, Indigenous health care in Canada, Jordan's Principle, Non-Insured Health Benefits, principles for Ethical Research and The First Nations principle of OCAP
- Solid background in computers with specific knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point Presentation, virtual platforms, and electronic medical records

Skills/Abilities

- Ability to work collaboratively with team members and leadership skills
- Ability to relate effectively to community members, problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Ability to work effectively with all age groups, strong clinical assessment skills
- Ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing and speak effectively in public
- Ability to read, interpret and explain policies, programs, reports, financial reporting/budgets
- Ability to work flexible hours, including evenings, weekends, multi-task, organize multiple projects and programs
- Ability to write proposals, work plans, and narrative reports

Assets

- Awareness of the 7 Grandfather teachings and the Anishinaabe culture and language
- Have had Trauma Informed Training
- Cultural Safety training and Mental Health training or experience

Other Requirements

- Must provide the results of a current criminal reference check, including a vulnerable sector check
- Must have a Safe Food Handler's Certificate or be willing to obtain one as soon as possible
- Must have a valid "G" Driver's license
- CPR and First Aid certification

Please submit your cover letter, resume, proof of educational qualifications and three current references, two of which are employment related, to:

The Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation
Attention: Personnel Committee
2789 Mississauga Road
Hagersville, ON
N0A 1H0

Applications will also be accepted by fax at 905-768-1225 or via email at the address listed below.

A detailed job description is available at the Administration Building or by email at HRClerk@mncfn.ca

Preference will be given to Indigenous applicants. Self-Identification is encouraged.

Miigwech to all who apply, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.