

Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (Department of Lifelong Learning)

Computer Loan Program Agreement

Eligibility:

Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (MCFN) post-secondary students are eligible to take a loan of a laptop for academic purposes. This provision is subject to available funding for the academic year in which it is loaned. To be eligible, students must be in good standing with MCFN. A computer loan is available for the school year in which the student applies. At the end of the student's academic program, the laptop must be returned in good working order or purchased as per the terms below. Except for those who buy it for the nominal $100 fee at the end of their second year.

Terms of loan and use:

A _____ (make, model, serial number) laptop is being loaned to the student _____ for academic purposes for the _____ Program. It is the student's responsibility to care for the equipment and ensure it is maintained in a safe environment. The laptop computer, computer charger brick, charger cord and carrying case are the property of MCFN (Department of Lifelong Learning) and are herewith being loaned to the student for educational purposes only for academic program noted above. Students may not deface or destroy this property in any way during the period of the loan. Inappropriate material on the laptop may result in the student losing their right to use this computer. The equipment will be returned at the end of the student's program or the student may pay a fee of $100.00 to purchase the laptop/computer.

If the laptop is lost or stolen or damaged while in the student's possession, Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (Department of Lifelong Learning) will not be responsible for any activity/damage caused outside of regular warranty provisions. Any damage outside of the warranty provisions will be the responsibility of the student. Should the laptop/computer be damaged outside of warranty provisions, the student shall repair the laptop prior to returning it at the end of the school year.

Any software downloaded on the laptop, other than the initial software provided, shall be the responsibility of the student.

Withdrawal:

If the student withdraws after the first year, he/she may purchase the laptop at 50 percent of the cost or return the computer. After completion of the second year, there will be the opportunity to purchase the computer for a nominal fee of $100.00.

Acknowledgement:

By signing below, the Borrower/Student acknowledges and agrees to the terms of use set out in this Agreement. The Borrower/Student acknowledges that the loan for a computer provided by Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (Department of Lifelong Learning) is a privilege, use of which must comply with this Agreement and must be returned, unless purchased. Further, the student acknowledges that it is their responsibility to protect and safeguard the laptop and return same in good condition and repair, unless the laptop is purchased at the end of the academic program.
